Report on National Integration Programme
"REGIONALISM"

The National Integration Program "Regionalism" was conducted on 20th February 2018 . The day aims to foster awareness about the importance of Regionalism.

The Chief Guest was Mrs. P. Nallanayaki, Assistant Professor (Hindi), Indian Institute of Catering Technology and Hotel Management , Thanjavur. who conveyed some important things about regionalism. She highlighted about the regionalism in her speech like Roots of regionalism is in India's manifold diversity of languages, cultures, ethnic groups, communities, religions and so on, and encouraged by the regional concentration of those identity markers, and fueled by a sense of regional deprivation.

The event also had the presence of Mrs. Punitha Ganesan, Secretary, Bharath College of Science and Management, Thanjavur.

50 Students from Department of Hotel Management to attend the National Integration Program "Regionalism".

The session was a good learning experience for Faculty and students.
